EXHIBIT D - INDIVIDUAL DEBTOR'S STATEMENT OF COMPLIANCE WITH CREDIT COUNSELING REQUIREMENT

Warning: You must be able to check truthfully one of the five statements regarding credit counseling listed below. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file a bankruptcy case, and the court can dismiss any case you do file. If that happens, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors will be able to resume collection activities against you. If your case is dismissed and you file another bankruptcy case later, you may be required to pay a second filing fee and you may have to take extra steps to stop creditors' collection activities.

Every individual debtor must file this Exhibit D. If a joint petition is filed, each spouse must complete and file a separate Exhibit D. Check one of the five statements below and attach any documents as directed.

☒ 1. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, and I have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. Attach a copy of the certificate and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency.

☐ 2. Within the 180 days before the filing of my bankruptcy case, I received a briefing from a credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted me in performing a related budget analysis, but I do not have a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to me. You must file a copy of a certificate from the agency describing the services provided to you and a copy of any debt repayment plan developed through the agency no later than 14 days after your bankruptcy case is filed.

☐ 3. I certify that I requested credit counseling services from an approved agency but was unable to obtain the services during the seven days from the time I made my request, and the following exigent circumstances merit a temporary waiver of the credit counseling requirement so I can file my bankruptcy case now. [Summarize exigent circumstances here.] _____

If your certification is satisfactory to the court, you must still obtain the credit counseling briefing within the first 30 days after you file your bankruptcy petition and promptly file a certificate from the agency that provided the counseling, together with a copy of any debt management plan developed through the agency. Failure to fulfill these requirements may result in dismissal of your case. Any extension of the 30-day deadline can be granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days. Your case may also be dismissed if the court is not satisfied with your reasons for filing your bankruptcy case without first receiving a credit counseling briefing.

☐ 4. I am not required to receive a credit counseling briefing because of: [Check the applicable statement.] [Must be accompanied by a motion for determination by the court.]

☐ Incapacity. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as impaired by reason of mental illness or mental deficiency so as to be incapable of realizing and making rational decisions with respect to financial responsibilities.);

☐ Disability. (Defined in 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(4) as physically impaired to the extent of being unable, after reasonable effort, to participate in a credit counseling briefing in person, by telephone, or through the Internet.);

☐ Active military duty in a military combat zone.

☐ 5. The United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator has determined that the credit counseling requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 109(h) does not apply in this district.

I certify under penalty of perjury that the information provided above is true and correct.

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF SOUTH CAROLINA

NOTICE TO CONSUMER DEBTOR(S) UNDER § 342(b)
OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

In accordance with § 342(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, this notice to individuals with primarily consumer debts: (1) Describes briefly the services available from credit counseling services; (2) Describes briefly the purposes, benefits and costs of the four types of bankruptcy proceedings you may commence; and (3) Informs you about bankruptcy crimes and notifies you that the Attorney General may examine all information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case.

You are cautioned that bankruptcy law is complicated and not easily described. Thus, you may wish to seek the advice of an attorney to learn of your rights and responsibilities should you decide to file a petition. Court employees cannot give you legal advice.

Notices from the bankruptcy court are sent to the mailing address you list on your bankruptcy petition. In order to ensure that you receive information about events concerning your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address. If you are filing a joint case (a single bankruptcy case for two individuals married to each other), and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, you and your spouse will generally receive a single copy of each notice mailed from the bankruptcy court in a jointly-addressed envelope, unless you file a statement with the court requesting that each spouse receive a separate copy of all notices.

1. Services Available from Credit Counseling Agencies

With limited exceptions, § 109(h) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that all individual debtors who file for bankruptcy relief on or after October 17, 2005, receive a briefing that outlines the available opportunities for credit counseling and provides assistance in performing a budget analysis. The briefing must be given within 180 days before the bankruptcy filing. The briefing may be provided individually or in a group (including briefings conducted by telephone or on the Internet) and must be provided by a nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency approved by the United States trustee or bankruptcy administrator. The clerk of the bankruptcy court has a list that you may consult of the approved budget and credit counseling agencies. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the briefing.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, an individual debtor generally must complete a financial management instructional course before he or she can receive a discharge. The clerk also has a list of approved financial management instructional courses. Each debtor in a joint case must complete the course.

2. The Four Chapters of the Bankruptcy Code Available to Individual Consumer Debtors

Chapter 7: Liquidation ($245 filing fee, $75 administrative fee, $15 trustee surcharge: Total Fee $335)

Chapter 7 is designed for debtors in financial difficulty who do not have the ability to pay their existing debts. Debtors whose debts are primarily consumer debts are subject to a "means test" designed to determine whether the case should be permitted to proceed under chapter 7. If your income is greater than the median income for your state of residence and family size, in some cases, the United States trustee (or bankruptcy administrator), the trustee, or creditors have the right to file a motion requesting that the court dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Code. It is up to the court to decide whether the case should be dismissed.

Under chapter 7, you may claim certain of your property as exempt under governing law. A trustee may have the right to take possession of and sell the remaining property that is not exempt and use the sale proceeds to pay your creditors.

The purpose of filing a chapter 7 case is to obtain a discharge of your existing debts. If, however, you are found to have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge and, if it does, the purpose for which you filed the bankruptcy petition will be defeated.

Even if you receive a general discharge, some particular debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible for most taxes and student loans; debts incurred to pay nondischargeable taxes; domestic support and property settlement obligations; most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; and debts for death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs. Also, if a creditor can prove that a debt arose from fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, or theft, or from a willful and malicious injury, the bankruptcy court may determine that the debt is not discharged.

Chapter 13: Repayment of All or Part of the Debts of an Individual with Regular Income ($235 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $310)

Chapter 13 is designed for individuals with regular income who would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time. You are only eligible for chapter 13 if your debts do not exceed certain dollar amounts set forth in the Bankruptcy Code.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, using your future earnings. The period allowed by the court to repay your debts may be three years or five years, depending upon your income and other factors. The court must approve your plan before it can take effect.

After completing the payments under your plan, your debts are generally discharged except for domestic support obligations; most student loans; certain taxes; most criminal fines and restitution obligations; certain debts which are not properly listed in your bankruptcy papers; certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury; and certain long term secured obligations.

Chapter 11: Reorganization ($1,167 filing fee, $550 administrative fee: Total Fee $1,717)

Chapter 11 is designed for the reorganization of a business but is also available to consumer debtors. Its provisions are quite complicated, and any decision by an individual to file a chapter 11 petition should be reviewed with an attorney.

Chapter 12: Family Farmer or Fisherman ($200 filing fee, $75 administrative fee: Total Fee $275)

Chapter 12 is designed to permit family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time from future earnings and is similar to chapter 13. The eligibility requirements are restrictive, limiting its use to those whose income arises primarily from a family-owned farm or commercial fishing operation.

3. Bankruptcy Crimes and Availability of Bankruptcy Papers to Law Enforcement Officials

A person who knowingly and fraudulently conceals assets or makes a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury, either orally or in writing, in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to a fine, imprisonment, or both. All information supplied by a debtor in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the United States Trustee, the Office of the United States Attorney, and other components and employees of the Department of Justice.

WARNING: Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information regarding your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. Your bankruptcy case may be dismissed if this information is not filed with the court within the time deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court. The documents and the deadlines for filing them are listed on Form B200, which is posted at http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_forms.html#procedure.

CHAPTER 7 EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT

THIS AGREEMENT entered into on July 8, 2014, by and between law firm and the undersigned client, wherein we agree to represent you in a Chapter 7 action. If you change your mind and decide against going forward, we will retain monies paid as earned.

THE FEE to be paid to us for required services is $ 1,150, plus court and out of pocket costs of $ 350. You will pay the fees as agreed upon between us. If the fee has not been paid in advance, you have executed a promise to pay the balance at appointed times, and your failure to pay as agreed upon will permit us to withdraw services as set out below.

YOU understand that we will not be required to file the case until the above costs have been paid.

YOU should not assume this action has been filed until given a case number for your case.

YOUR attendance will be required at all Court hearings, and you should notify us if attendance is impossible. Failure to attend a hearing can result in the dismissal of your case by the court and/or additional fees.

YOU shall immediately notify us upon any change of address, change of phone number, or change of employment.

YOU understand that the form provided by us must be filled out completely, honestly and accurately. This information is placed on the Court-provided Schedules, and any dishonest affirmations by you could result in denial of your bankruptcy discharge, and/or criminal charges. We are not responsible for representing you in such event.

YOU understand that, if the case is filed jointly, we represent both husband and wife. We will assume all information given to one of you or sent to your address is received by both of you. No information provided by either of you will be kept from the other. If, at any time, you disagree as to any significant aspect of the case, we may find it impossible to represent both of you. At that time, the conflict will be discussed, and if necessary, we will be forced to withdraw as counsel for both of you, as required by South Carolina law.

YOU understand that the proposals of law firm regarding the forgiveness of tax debt, or the taxes that would need to be paid, are based upon the information provided by client, and not based upon independent research done by law firm. The timing of the filing of the bankruptcy case can be very important in the forgiveness of tax debt, especially if any tax returns were not filed, were filed only by the taxing entity, or were filed late (even if an extension was requested and granted). The fees charged for the case do not reflect sufficient funds to cover the time required to do such research. Client hereby waives any liability of the law firm in not researching this issue before the case is filed, in order to keep the fees charged for filing the case to the amount indicated above.

YOU are responsible for all information provided the Court. The failure to list a creditor might result in your still owing the creditor not listed.

I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE ABOVE PAGE

YOU understand that, as a general rule, creditors will not be contacted by us. Notice to creditors will come from the U.S. Bankruptcy Court within a few days after filing. You are welcome to advise creditors of our availability to answer any creditor's questions. You shall supply any creditor with the case number and date of filing once obtained, and should not expect further contact from any such creditor.

YOU should expect us to return all calls and answer all questions promptly. Whenever your attorney is not available, please ask to speak to your designated bankruptcy assistant, who can answer many questions or relay information to the attorney and then call you back. More complex questions or problems may require you to schedule an appointment at a later time. Emails to your attorney will be answered very promptly.

YOU must disclose the existence of any student loans for which you are responsible. Such debts should be listed by you, but these are nondischargeable unless the Court finds, in a separate action, that the debt should be forgiven as an extraordinary hardship. An action such as this would have required substantial additional fees to this firm. Since no such agreement has been reached to initiate such an action, these debts will survive the bankruptcy, and will continue to be a legal obligation of yours even though we have listed the debt in the case.

YOU understand that child support and alimony obligations are nondischargeable, and you still owe these debts after filing your bankruptcy case. In the event that you have agreed or been court-ordered to be responsible for debt with your spouse or ex-spouse, that person could file an action against you to enforce that obligation. This firm does not automatically represent you in such an action, unless we can agree to the additional compensation for that work. We reserve the right to petition to withdraw services in the event an agreement could not be reached between us to compensate us for these unanticipated services.

YOU understand that, under current law, a Chapter 7 filing can be reported by a credit reporting institution for ten (10) years after filing, but not thereafter. If the laws change, it is possible that the filing could be reported for a longer period of time. The law firm is in no way ever responsible for addressing any issues concerning your credit report.

YOU understand that you are not eligible for another Chapter 7 discharge for eight (8) years after filing this case.

YOU understand which property, if not all, will be permitted to be kept in this case. You further understand which secured creditors, if any, are to be paid by you despite the filing of this action. If converting to Chapter 13 becomes necessary, there would be additional fees. Those fees would be determined by us and may be paid by the Trustee through a Chapter 13 plan. Should work be required in that converted case which is unexpected, fees in addition to those charged for the conversion may be required.

YOU understand that any debt secured by collateral which you intend to keep must be kept current by you, whether or not the creditor continues to send bills or statements, and that we are not responsible for your failure to comply with this responsibility. If any such failure to pay requires legal intervention, such work shall not be required of us without additional compensation. Despite the bankruptcy, there may be some debts that you are continuing to pay directly. Often, mortgage companies and others will stop sending you bills and will no longer allow you to make online payments after you have filed a bankruptcy. Make a copy of your bill prior to filing to enable you to make proper payments after your case is filed.

If YOU do not pay for services as promised or provide information as needed, after written notice to you, we can stop serving as attorney and retain fees paid.

YOU understand that if you are behind in payments to a creditor and you intend to keep the collateral under lien, you are responsible for arranging suitable terms with the creditor(s) involved. We will not be required to intervene in this work. YOU understand that after discharge, such a creditor would have the right to reclaim this collateral unless arrangements have been made. YOU understand that any negotiations with your mortgage company as to modifying or refinancing your mortgage will be completed by you and not by the firm.

YOU understand that, if arrangements are made to bring secured debts up to date, and a reaffirmation agreement is signed, you are responsible for maintaining those payments. In the event of any future default, the secured creditor would not only have the right to reclaim the collateral, but would also have the right to seek the balance from you if the property is sold for less than the debt owed.

YOU understand that, because of the large volume of mail that we anticipate receiving on your behalf, we will not forward every document to you for your review. We will review documents, including, but not limited to, offers for reaffirmation agreements, on your behalf, and will forward only those we recommend you accept or that we believe you should review.

YOU understand that there are additional fees required if creditors are added to the original list. This fee would be a minimum of $100.00 which would be paid to us. Out of this money, $26.00 would be paid to the Clerk of Court. We reserve the right to charge a higher fee for such work, and often do, if there are any special problems with the creditor(s) added.

You understand that we will not be responsible for updating, or filing any objections or corrections in regard to your credit report, either before, during or after the bankruptcy proceeding. Further, law firm has not obligated itself to represent you in the event of some action of a third party which might violate the bankruptcy stay or otherwise affect your rights. In the event the law firm believes a third party has performed an inappropriate act we will agree to make one written demand in an effort to seek a "correction" of the problem, but the law firm will have no requirement to initiate an action in bankruptcy or state court to seek damages or other relief. A separate agreement between client and law firm would be required in such event.

YOU will be required to complete two debt management courses in order to receive the discharge of debts.

WE have reached no agreement on what fees would be charged you in the event of an action by the trustee and/or a particular creditor, or any entity, against you, alleging that their debt should not be forgiven or that your discharge should be denied fully because of some act or omission on your part. We reserve the right to petition to withdraw services in the event an agreement could not be reached between us to compensate us for these unanticipated services. Should you be found to be ineligible to file this Chapter of bankruptcy, there could be fees for defending any such assertion or for conversion of your case to one under another Chapter.

YOU UNDERSTAND THAT, IN THE EVENT THAT YOUR CASE IS DISMISSED BY THE BANKRUPTCY COURT, THE ATTORNEY-CLIENT RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN YOURSELF AND LAW FIRM IS TERMINATED. This employment agreement does not extend to law firm representing you post-dismissal. In order to undertake any further representation after dismissal, a new meeting with you may be necessary and a new employment agreement WOULD be required. Further, fees for such representation will be determined on a case-by-case basis. JB initial JB initial

We will agree to hold your papers until one year after the case is dismissed or discharged.

I HAVE read all pages of this agreement, understand it, and have been provided with a copy of it, which I agree to keep.

CLIENT

CLIENT

I UNDERSTAND this is a long agreement; however, I was not required to sign it in a rushed fashion, and was instructed to read it carefully, and to have any questions answered. This has been done.

SCHEDULE A - REAL PROPERTY

Except as directed below, list all real property in which the debtor has any legal, equitable, or future interest, including all property owned as a cotenant, community property, or in which the debtor has a life estate. Include any property in which the debtor holds rights and powers exercisable for the debtor's own benefit. If the debtor is married, state whether husband, wife, both, or the marital community own the property by placing an "H," "W," "J," or "C" in the column labeled "Husband, Wife, Joint, or Community." If the debtor holds no interest in real property, write "None" under "Description and Location of Property."

Do not include interests in executory contracts and unexpired leases on this schedule. List them in Schedule G - Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases.

If an entity claims to have a lien or hold a secured interest in any property, state the amount of the secured claim. See Schedule D. If no entity claims to hold a secured interest in the property, write "None" in the column labeled "Amount of Secured Claim." If the debtor is an individual or if a joint petition is filed, state the amount of any exemption claimed in the property only in Schedule C - Property Claimed as Exempt.

SCHEDULE D - CREDITORS HOLDING SECURED CLAIMS

State the name, mailing address, including zip code, and last four digits of any account number of all entities holding claims secured by property of the debtor as of the date of filing of the petition. The complete account number of any account the debtor has with the creditor is useful to the trustee and the creditor and may be provided if the debtor chooses to do so. List creditors holding all types of secured interests such as judgment liens, garnishments, statutory liens, mortgages, deeds of trust, and other security interests.

List creditors in alphabetical order to the extent practicable. If a minor child is a creditor, the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. §112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m). If all secured creditors will not fit on this page, use the continuation sheet provided.

If any entity other than a spouse in a joint case may be jointly liable on a claim, place an "X" in the column labeled "Codebtor", include the entity on the appropriate schedule of creditors, and complete Schedule H - Codebtors. If a joint petition is filed, state whether the husband, wife, both of them, or the marital community may be liable on each claim by placing an "H", "W", "J", or "C" in the column labeled "Husband, Wife, Joint, or Community".

If the claim is contingent, place an "X" in the column labeled "Contingent". If the claim is unliquidated, place an "X" in the column labeled "Unliquidated". If the claim is disputed, place an "X" in the column labeled "Disputed". (You may need to place an "X" in more than one of these three columns.)

Total the columns labeled "Amount of Claim Without Deducting Value of Collateral" and "Unsecured Portion, if Any" in the boxes labeled "Total(s)" on the last sheet of the completed schedule. Report the total from the column labeled "Amount of Claim" also on the Summary of Schedules and, if the debtor is an individual with primarily consumer debts, report the total from the column labeled "Unsecured Portion" on the Statistical Summary of Certain Liabilities and Related Data.

☐ Check this box if debtor has no creditors holding secured claims to report on this Schedule D.

SCHEDULE E - CREDITORS HOLDING UNSECURED PRIORITY CLAIMS

A complete list of claims entitled to priority, listed separately by type of priority, is to be set forth on the sheets provided. Only holders of unsecured claims entitled to priority should be listed in this schedule. In the boxes provided on the attached sheets, state the name, mailing address, including zip code, and last four digits of the account number, if any, of all entities holding priority claims against the debtor or the property of the debtor, as of the date of the filing of the petition. Use a separate continuation sheet for each type of priority and label each with the type of priority.

The complete account number of any account the debtor has with the creditor is useful to the trustee and the creditor and may be provided if the debtor chooses to do so. If a minor child is a creditor, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112 and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

If any entity other than a spouse in a joint case may be jointly liable on a claim, place an "X" in the column labeled "Codebtor," include the entity on the appropriate schedule of creditors, and complete Schedule H-Codebtors. If a joint petition is filed, state whether the husband, wife, both of them, or the marital community may be liable on each claim by placing an "H," "W," "J," or "C" in the column labeled "Husband, Wife, Joint, or Community." If the claim is contingent, place an "X" in the column labeled "Contingent." If the claim is unliquidated, place an "X" in the column labeled "Unliquidated." If the claim is disputed, place an "X" in the column labeled "Disputed." (You may need to place an "X" in more than one of these three columns.)

Report the total of claims listed on each sheet in the box labeled "Subtotals" on each sheet. Report the total of all claims listed on this Schedule E in the box labeled "Total" on the last sheet of the completed schedule. Report this total also on the Summary of Schedules.

Report the total of amounts entitled to priority listed on each sheet in the box labeled "Subtotals" on each sheet. Report the total of all amounts entitled to priority listed on this Schedule E in the box labeled "Totals" on the last sheet of the completed schedule. Individual debtors with primarily consumer debts report this total also on the Statistical Summary of Certain Liabilities and Related Data.

Report the total of amounts not entitled to priority listed on each sheet in the box labeled "Subtotals" on each sheet. Report the total of all amounts not entitled to priority listed on this Schedule E in the box labeled "Totals" on the last sheet of the completed schedule. Individual debtors with primarily consumer debts report this total also on the Statistical Summary of Certain Liabilities and Related Data.

☒ Check this box if debtor has no creditors holding unsecured priority claims to report on this Schedule E.

TYPES OF PRIORITY CLAIMS (Check the appropriate box(es) below if claims in that category are listed on the attached sheets)☐ Domestic support obligations

Claims for domestic support that are owed to or recoverable by a spouse, former spouse, or child of the debtor, or the parent, legal guardian, or responsible relative of such a child, or a governmental unit to whom such a domestic support claim has been assigned to the extent provided in 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(1).

☐ Extensions of credit in an involuntary case

Claims arising in the ordinary course of the debtor's business or financial affairs after the commencement of the case but before the earlier of the appointment of a trustee or the order for relief. 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(3).

☐ Wages, salaries, and commissions

Wages, salaries, and commissions, including vacation, severance, and sick leave pay owing to employees and commissions owing to qualifying independent sales representatives up to $12,475* per person earned within 180 days immediately preceding the filing of the original petition, or the cessation of business, whichever occurred first, to the extent provided in 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(4).

☐ Contributions to employee benefit plans

Money owed to employee benefit plans for services rendered within 180 days immediately preceding the filing of the original petition, or the cessation of business, whichever occurred first, to the extent provided in 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(5).

☐ Certain farmers and fishermen

Claims of certain farmers and fishermen, up to $6,150* per farmer or fisherman, against the debtor, as provided in 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(6).

☐ Deposits by individuals

Claims of individuals up to $2,775* for deposits for the purchase, lease, or rental of property or services for personal, family, or household use, that were not delivered or provided. 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(7).

STATEMENT OF FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

This statement is to be completed by every debtor. Spouses filing a joint petition may file a single statement on which the information for both spouses is combined. If the case is filed under chapter 12 or chapter 13, a married debtor must furnish information for both spouses whether or not a joint petition is filed, unless the spouses are separated and a joint petition is not filed. An individual debtor engaged in business as a sole proprietor, partner, family farmer, or self-employed professional, should provide the information requested on this statement concerning all such activities as well as the individual's personal affairs. To indicate payments, transfers and the like to minor children, state the child's initials and the name and address of the child's parent or guardian, such as "A.B., a minor child, by John Doe, guardian." Do not disclose the child's name. See, 11 U.S.C. § 112; Fed. R. Bankr. P. 1007(m).

Questions 1 - 18 are to be completed by all debtors. Debtors that are or have been in business, as defined below, also must complete Questions 19 - 25. If the answer to an applicable question is "None," mark the box labeled "None." If additional space is needed for the answer to any question, use and attach a separate sheet properly identified with the case name, case number (if known), and the number of the question.

DEFINITIONS

"In business." A debtor is "in business" for the purpose of this form if the debtor is a corporation or partnership. An individual debtor is "in business" for the purpose of this form if the debtor is or has been, within six years immediately preceding the filing of this bankruptcy case, any of the following: an officer, director, managing executive, or owner of 5 percent or more of the voting or equity securities of a corporation; a partner, other than a limited partner, of a partnership; a sole proprietor or self-employed full-time or part-time. An individual debtor also may be "in business" for the purpose of this form if the debtor engages in a trade, business, or other activity, other than as an employee, to supplement income from the debtor's primary employment.

"Insider." The term "insider" includes but is not limited to: relatives of the debtor; general partners of the debtor and their relatives; corporations of which the debtor is an officer, director, or person in control; officers, directors, and any persons in control of a corporate debtor and their relatives; affiliates of the debtor and insiders of such affiliates; and any managing agent of the debtor. 11 U.S.C. § 101(2), (31).
